A SIX NIGHTS, NEW YEAR AND SAT-DEDAY MATINEES. T. TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY MAT-AND NIGHT, Dec. 20, 21 and Jan. 1 be presented, with new scenery, the of residence drams, STREETS OF NEW MK.—Tom Badger, Mr. Ches. Pope; Dick.
Newsboy, with song and dance. Miss is a Markey. Thursday, Friday. Sature May her and Night, Jan. 2, Namd 4, will presented, for the first lime in this site. ted, for the first time in this city, sensational drama, entitled FOUL M the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift.

Store RIOOM—No. 35 Madison street, Description of the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift.

Store RIOOM—No. 35 Madison street, Description of the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift.

Store RIOOM—No. 35 Madison street, Description of the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift.

Store RIOOM—No. 35 Madison street, Description of the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift.

Store RIOOM—No. 35 Madison street, Description of the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift.

Store RIOOM—No. 35 Madison street, Description of the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift.

Store RIOOM—No. 35 Madison street, Description of the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift.

Store RIOOM—No. 35 Madison street, Description of the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift.

Store RIOOM—No. 35 Madison street, Description of the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift.

Store RIOOM—No. 35 Madison street, Description of the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift.

Store RIOOM—No. 35 Madison street, Description of the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift.

Store RIOOM—No. 35 Madison street, Description of the New Year's Malines every-lives a gift. At the New Year's Matines ever

THE LYDIA THOMPSON TROUPE. I menagement is happy to announce the they have received an intima-

PEARL OF SAVOY.

OF THE

OF TENNESSEE,

AT COCHRAN HALL,

THE ANNUAL

FAIR AND PESTIVAL for the benefit of ST. PETER'S ORPHAN ASYLUM, will be held at

ASSEMBLY HALL

CECOND ANSUAL BALL

( ) RPHANS PAIR.

that his store of TOYS! TOYS! TOYS! TOYS! TOYS! IS NOT EXHAUSTED, NEW YEAR'S MATINEE AND DISTRIBUTE #2" 5000 To

OF PRESENTS : WE Fory man, woman and child will receive Gift worth more than the price of admission.

RAND OFERA HOUSE. JOHN A. ST ces Manager Ben DeBan mediately, g and Stage Manager T. W. Davar del3 POSITIVELY LAST WEEK MISS MAGGIE MITCHELL,

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, DEC. 30 and 3 Year's Day Matinee, at 2 p.m., THE LITTLE BAREFOOT. WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY, Jan, ist and id I FRIDAY PAREWELL BENEFIT OF MISS MAGGIE MITCHELL, PEARL OF SAVOY.

SATURDAY, AT 2 P.M., AST MAGGIE MITCHELL MATINEE. SATURDAY EVENING, Last Appearance

Monday, January 6th-The Great Lingar Combination. HORSE AND SADDLE.
An OWNER for one brown horse and saddle. He was taken up on the 21st instant. Apply at 29 Second sirect.

E. KECK & BRO. Machinists' & Bincksmiths' Union, No. 1

New Year's Night, January I, 1873, New Year's Night, January 1, 1873,

Jakets, admitting gentleman and ladles, 83,

Including support,

Inclu The proceeds of the ball to be expended atting up a ball and precuring a library the M. and B. Union.

den THOMAS SIMMONS. St Adams. A S S E M B L Y H A L L.

Outside Tree of the Overland H OUSE. To rent a small near house of 3 or 4 rooms, within a few minutes' walk of the Overlan Hotel. Apply to the Overlan Hotel. W. HOFFMAN, Ja.,

ANNOUNCEMENTS. FOUR GARDENERS, TWELVE WOMEN Clooks. & Jefferson street. WM. DARDIS. FREELY announce myself a candelate of Floater to represent the counties of by a rapid and accurate account sale the and Shelby in the lower house of the mountain competent book-keeper; occur work to an annual competent book-keeper; occur work of the and Shelby in the lower house of the King and Shelby in the lower house of the King and Competent book-keeper; Good work it General Assembly. The election is to be a fair pay; Al city references. Address it January 5, 1878.

B. J. TZCKER.

For Conuciliann Third Ward.

ROOMS AND BOARD. For Conncilman Fourth Ward, EUK is a candidate for Councilman on Fourth Ward. Election Jan., 1978, the office of Alderman of the Six For Alderman Third Ward

For Conneilman First Ward, BOARD - A furnished room, with board terms moderate, at III Vance street, Zin'l as a candidate for re-election as eliman of the First Ward. Election Jan-de22 ics. MARY J. HOLMES is a candidate for School Visitor in the Eighth Ward, del

59 ADAMS STREET.

CK AND FIXTURES—In the drug store f Taylor & Co., No. 176 Popular street. Ap-E. DUDLEY FRANSER, No. 7 Madison street.

72. 8.8. REMBERT.

Ly GOD: WOOD:

at 24 AVERY STREET.

etts property; and if not sold will be rented on the first day of January, NN, for the year, terms of sale easy and secommodating.

W. B. WILLIAMSUN. beller, with pumps and a lot of 10-inch beller mile of Horn Lake Depot (Mississippl and mile of Horn Lake Depot (Mississippl and mississe Britings), 40, 40 or 100 acros of extent cotton and arm lands and improvement, also, 100 acros near Forrest City, 55 per callso, two houses and into in subtribute.

ANO A new Chickering Piano and whosier & Wilson Sewing Machine; terms al. Apply to Jones, Brown & Co., 278 Front.

B. B. BAENES,

El Main street. ULES AND HORSES-Always for sale, at 42 South Court street.

J. B. FAIRES & CO.

Y STEAM MILL, consisting of E-horse power engine and double-fue boiler, in indicator, whistle, Judeou governor, mill, grist-mill of four-feet French burrel, elevators, conveyers, boiling appearance. my residence and banking-house. the week, month or year.

> change, and for their benefit we note the fact that on the first of January the day BLANKETS: policemen will go on night duty, and happened in three months.
>
> —A clerk named Reilie had a severe WHITE & COLORED BLANKETS

the night policemen on day daty. This is the first change of the sort that has hear, very valuable water power, pure in all shalponds with parieties of mal; very smaller north of Mena it is pring. In this ponds with varieties of mal; very smaller north of Mena it is the first change of the sort that has happened in three months.

—A clerk named Reilie had a severe head put on him last night for making a trifling remark about a married lady. The action of the gentleman who administered the dose was so prompt and of ability and integrity. For further hars apply to Hon. A. H. Douglass, it remarks apply to Hon. A. H. Douglass, it remarks apply to Hon. A. H. Douglass, it remarks apply to Hon. A. H. Douglass, it is the first change of the sort that has happened in three months.

The action of the gentleman who administered the dose was so prompt and off approbation. It was a salutary lesson, the premises.

The promises of the sort that has happened in three months.

The action of the gentleman who administered the dose was so prompt and off approbation. It was a salutary lesson, the premises.

OUNE—GROUND—A house on New Madison street, No. 24; contains five rooms a kitchen Apply on premises. Also, acres near the "Cherry Place." soils fourteen street cars all in a row, held beof Madison street, yesterday, we saw fourteen street cars all in a row, held be-TAS LANDS—Of various qualities, quantities and locations, for sale very low, or to nothing but the taxes, which are it was a pity that the cars were not allowed to make time; it was the first day ed to make time; it was the first day they were out in full force since the

PERIDENCE No. 152 Hernandostreel. Apply to T. R. Logwood at the office of the badle Register, No. 8 Lefferson street, do29

P COM FOR HENT-Smitable for millinground of the office, first floor, over Singer Sewing Machine agency, 2016 Main street. DART OF A NEW COTTAGE, 2 rooms, for om the window of the burning drugstore, had a plaster put on his eye, and was at his post again in five min but for this the steamboatmen were prepared, and but little additional injury was done beyond the further breaking and is consequently always full of ork, but he would not turn out a compared.

The dry deals were moved down.

Last night we had the pleasure of silling the rooms of the Memphis eading Room Association. Besides to reading matter in the way of maganess and papers on their tables, we were nes miscellaneous, by Van A. W. Anstill firmer, but otherwise uninjured rison; four volumes, Goldsmith's The steamer PAT CLEBURNE.

The great "original" in the news of Memphis, Joe Locke, who lignifies his establishment with the ign of the "APPEAL Newsboy," has renoved to 238 Main street, one door bove his former "cubby bole," and has bere the most attractive and inviting which is the little ferryboat. elved from others. strated in the highest style of the art. clear of ice, but thought that Call and see Joe early to-day, buy a copy of the SUNDAY APPEAL, and then fill

The following telegrams remain un-livered in the office of the Western n street: B. Bayliss & Co., O. Pal-er, M. Burke, Carberry & Casey, B. erton & Co., Miss P. Brandt, Dickin-to, Williams&Co., E. Otto, T. W. Eustis, Falls & Co., T. A. Paton & Co., Gates, cod & Co., W. H. Gardner, S. Toube, Hughes, Brode & Cooper, Georgian-Jones, A. S. Livermore, Col. Ed. L. Ghee, Treadwell & Bros., J. T. Drew, G. Wheaton, C. F. Smith, J. H. by the A. J. White. The steamer orkie & Frey, Madame Melrose, Jones, Januaries of a mile south of White's Station, alternated and Charleston Raticond—fifty—acres cleared, thirty acres of fine timber, are residence and good out-houses. For their particulars apply to subscriptions for the leading papers and magazines, commencing with the new year. He is agent for the publishers, and thus all were subscriptions for the leading papers and magazines, commencing with the new year. He is agent for the publishers, and thus all were subscriptions for the leading papers and magazines, commencing with the new year. He is agent for the publishers, and thus all were subscriptions for the publishers. The balance of our stock of the white of the week month or year. The balance of our stock of fine white California and Holland blankets at

MENKEN BROTHERS.

GREAT BARGAINS IN

AT B. LOWENSTEIN & BROS'. bargains in gents' furnishing goods this veek at B. Lowenstein & Bres'. A CARD. Mannuis, Tann., December 28, 1872.

RUIN ON ICE.

The Wrecks of the Randolph Gorge-The Levee Visited by Thousands of Citizens.

The Destruction of a Night-Boats, Barges, Freight and Ice in Inextricable Confusion.

pect for More of the Same Sort.

nd always look well. It has been a seculiarity of all great men that they cet their clothes and boots, and such hings, made by artists who were not in

The dry docks were moved down some eight or nine feet by this mass, and the coal flat lying just at their stern saion than he does in money. Memois ought to feel proud of McGinnis.

and to see that books are gathering on and both ends of the flat raised high i seir shelves, donated by our citizens, the air, and breaking in two in the midd follows: Thirty-two volumes miscel-neous, by W. B. Miller; fourteen vol-works, donated by W. H. Foute; three volumes by Minor Meriwether; one volumes by Minor Meriwether; one volumes by Minor Meriwether; one volumes by W. L. Scott; Don Quixote by B. F. Coalman; fifteen volumes miscellaneous, by E. C. McDowell; Worcester's Chabridged Dictionary, by J. S. Hatcher & Co.; large map of the United States, by J. N. Ford. We hope our citizens will examine their libraries, and see what books they can spare for the library of this association. We are required to thank the above donors, and state that like favors will be gratefully received from others.

PAT CLEBURNE,

lying just below, had steam up all Friday and see the gorge should come, but only her lines were tightened a little by the force of the lee and current. Outside of her and the dry docks the ice extended for at least a hundred yards, and was fully fifteen feet deep at the shore. Under the stern of the Cleburne lie the coal docks owned by Brown & Jones, sunk out of Fight. PAT CLEBURNE, low, rich or poor, will find on his other gorge come down upon them, and unters and shelves something to please | that is probable, from the fact that yesbunters and shelves something to please and adjusted within their reach. He has been invited by many of the Comman arrived from Pacific Place, some twenty-five miles above here, on the Arkanssas shore, he having crossed the river arrent literature, and many of them fully five miles above here are there in a skiff, and reported the river distracted in the highest style of the art.

ANOTHER GORGE HAD FORMED ABOVE. with the best you can find to your er A. J. White got up steam and made her way to the bar opposite, landing immediately below the H. C. Yaeger, and will there remain until the ice and will there remain until the ice appeared in Under the Gas Light on any longer, are you immediately below the H. C. Yaeger, and will there remain until the ice clears away. When night came on the floating ice was thinning out considerably, and the rising less rapid, the rise during the day having been but three inches, and several steamboatmen who were consulted were also of the opinion that another gorge had formed, as stated above, and that, should it come

MR. CHARLES POPE. one of the lesses of the Memphis Theater, and who appeared in Under the Gas Light on Monday and Tuesday nights of last week, but who has, ever since, been confined to his bed with severe cold, has, we are happy to announce, so far recovered as to enable him to appear in The Syects of New York, as "Tom Badger," on Monday (to-morrow) night.

WR. CHARLES POPE. one of the lesses of the Memphis Theater, and who appeared in Under the Gas Light on Monday in your group of the Memphis Theater, and who appeared in Under the Gas Light on Monday in your group of the opinion to the clear that who has, ever since, been confined to his bed with severe cold, has, we are happy to announce, so far recovered as to enable him to appear in The Syects of New York, as "Tom Badger," on Monday (to-morrow) night.

THE RALEIGH ROAD EPISTOR. THE DESTRUCTION

lilen, Huse & Co., Brown & would exceed that of Wednesday night. ries, H. Clay Conde, Goyer & Co., W. Williams, Guy, McC. & Co., W. Williams, Guy, McC. & Co., S. H. Shane & Co., E. Hobart & Co., ing the position at the landing occupied settled down during Friday night, until at the wheel and stern, and there rested upon a conglomerated mass of broken

nd. Co., Hobart & Co., Meyer & Herzog, H. and his wreckers to get out cotton dur-on. B. Packer & Co., W. H. Gardner. -The lovellest sort of a sight was that was done was this: A force of men was presented in the mission Sabbath-school kept in the boat with poles working assembled their pupils for a Christmas surprise. There were over a hundred little ones, mostly orphans or the chil-dren of helpless parents, gathered in the house on South street, not far from Main. Drinking polar-waves has gone out fashion since the mild weather treatens another visit.

The season of young lamb has arged. A nice roast lamb makes an cellent dish, it is said. It is, however, the constant exertions of the good of the constant exertions of the good of the day previous four hundred and forty-eight bales were removed, leaving but about two hundred and twenty-three bales on board to be taken out last night in for their temporal wants. On Friday there was a surprise ready for each unlast of the good of the day previous four hundred and forty-eight bales were taken out during the day, and on the day previous four hundred and forty-eight bales were removed, leaving but about two hundred and to-day. Nearly all of the Pike's furniture, doors, blinds, bell, etc., were also removed and taken out during the day, and on the day previous four hundred and forty-eight bales were taken out during the day, and on the day previous four hundred and forty-eight bales were removed, leaving but about two hundred and to-day. Nearly all of the Pike's furniture, doors, blinds, bell, etc., were also removed and taken out during the day, and at the same time make the little ones feel the same time makes the little ones feel the same time makes an increase and the day previous four hundred and forty-eight bales were removed, leaving but about two hundred and to-day. Nearly all of the Pike's furniture, doors, blinds, bell, etc., were also removed and taken out during the day on the day previous four hundred and forty-eight bales on board to be taken out last night and to-day. Nearly all of the Pike's furniture, doors, blinds, bell, etc., were also removed and taken out during the day, and at the same time make the little ones feel the same time make the little ones feel the same time and to-day. Nearly all of the Pike's furniture, doors, blinds, bell, etc., were also removed and taken out during the day of the da side had raised about three inches, show-ing that she is settling down quite rap-idly. All of her cabin fixtures are out, however, and yesterday men were at work taking out the steam pipes, ma-chinery, boilers, etc., and had one cyl-inder out when our reporter left the riv-er. In all probability she will settle down more to-day, and it would require but a slight weight or move of the ice to throw her over, as she lies considerably carcened. The little STERNWHEELER LAURA ice yesterday morning than did any of the other boats. She was main deck and hurricane more resembled a heavy sea than a steamboat. During the day all of the remaining portion of her machinery and cabin fixtures that could be got at was taken out. workmen were engaged cutting down her works for kindling wood. The small wharfboat lying between the Laura and the shore was in about the same condition as a coorted yesterday, except, per haps naving broken more of her cabin.

The little d nkey, except those mentioned above, and except the discharging of the cargo of sugar and molasses from the Glasgow, there was but little doing.

O'MAHONY'S TALE.

O'MAHONY'S TALE.

INCIDENTS. Those who were upon the bluffs short-ly after noon, as well as those who were enading the levee and had their eyes directed up stream, saw coming down on a huge cake of floating ice two human beings, men, who were throw-ing their arms about wildly, and waving r assistance as they came around the bint of the bar extending out from the Arkansas shore. Soon all eyes were turned upon them, and on they came for at least twenty minutes, until a skiff could be found upstairs, he said. "I want was seen to start out from the bar, and after working its way to the cake of ice upon which the men were, they were rescued and carried safely to land by the venturesome of them knew anything about it, and beatman who whatever his name may the Carrier had in let me go." Mr.

LAND-On the Poplar street turnpike, one mile from corporation line, fourteers and and analy across of lead, in a fine state of entity various; young orchard and large strawberry but a good house, of six rooms, is on the piace, and the stable and shed sighting as assault and battery, in having attempted to thrush the piace, and the stable and shed sighting attempted to thrush the piace, and the stable and shed sighting attempted to thrush the piace, and the stable and shed sighting attempted to thrush the piace, and the stable and shed sighting attempted to thrush the piace, and the stable and shed sighting attempted to thrush the piace, and the stable and shed sighting attempted to thrush the piace, and the stable and shed sighting attempted to thrush the piace, and the stable and shed sighting attempted to thrush the legal Tender at the bank at Elwood, and in a safe harbor; the Mary Boyd, which his "poor hip" sustained in the making cases. Annoy a man to death making cases. Annoy a man to death with eight hundred takes of cotton on board, four miles below her, and the struction of steamboat property and attempts to resent the annoyance by dealing out a well-merited "beit in the ear,"

WM. SQOTH, No. 43 Second st.

WM. SQOTH, No. 45 Second st.

W

riers, 279 Main street, sign of the Tiger.

which I offer for sale at as low prices as are generally asked for second and third Terms accommodating. H. G. HOLLENBERG, No. 274 Second street numerous friends. Mr. S. B. Robbins, the cient manner in which he has discharged | could get thirty thousand | dollars ball When this became known the steam- to prove a most excellent member of me out, because he knows me, and Mr.

FURS REDUCED, CLOAKS REDUCED, SHAWLS REDUCED.

B. LOWENSTEIN & BROS'

BLACK VELVETS. BLACK SILKS.

VELVET CLOAKS, SHAWLS, ETC.

fared worse by the move of the 500 SPLENDID MASQUERADE SUITS.

GRATES AND SMOKT CHIMNEYS. If you want your grates set, or smoky chimneys cured, call on H. Lemon, No. 101 Union street.

Messrs. Carberry & Casey, on Front ple, don't drive them nails in my face street, No. 359, is one of the largest of I said I'd be careful, and I hammere LOST | Part | P the city which does a big business. The supply of home and foreign whiskies, up town all right." Mr. O'Mahony re-his Profession, was Suspected of Murder-His Visit to the Appeal Office, and the Queer Yarns Cast he Unwound, Harrowing Experiences with Dead Men Supposed to be Living, and Living Men Supposed to be Bead,

Mr. Felix O'Mahony called at our ofoatman, who, whatever his name may the 'Squire had to let me go." Mr. e, did a noble act at the peril of his own O'Mahony got all this out in so voluble During the morning the water rose so rapidly that considerable freight lying at the foot of Jefferson street was submerged.

a manner, that the people down stairs did not know exactly what he had said. They were left no alternative but to send the wild-looking man up to the sane-ear."

—On West Court street, No. 5, we believe, there is the most astonishing artist in bootmaking that Memphis can boast. It is curious, but nevertheless true, that McGinnis makes boo's for all the great men of Memphis. They go to

They must have brought me up there working of all the machinery.

"They might bail you out." "There was no bail about it, though Cooney, the man I am working for,

THE RALLIGH BOAD EPISODE. THE RALEIGH ROAD EPISIDE.

"Tell me about that Raleigh road trip," put in the reporter.

Mr. O'Mahony proceeded at once to tell about that celebrated trip on the Raleigh road, which was ascribed to Mr. Walsh himself at the time, but it appears wrongfully, Mr. O'Mahony being the deputy undertaker whose duty it was to see all the paupers properly interred. Mr. O'M. went on: "The night was dusky when we heard that a man was dead out on the Raleigh road. Word was brought by some squire, who had blinded him, he could not see his way for a time at all, and so stepped right." coal barges and ice, enabling and his wreckers to get out cotton during the day. The manner in which it was done was this: A force of men was done was this: A force of men was kept in the boat with poles working through holes cut in the cabin floor, and moving the bales out to the side of the boat, where it was floated to the bank and drawn up run-ways, worked by horse and mule power, to file top of the bank and there rolled out of the way. In this manner some seventy-five or eighty bales were taken out during the day, and on thr. day previous four hundred and forly-eight bales were removed, leaving but about two hundred and forly-eight bales were removed, leaving but about two hundred and twenty-three but so no board to be taken out dwenty-three but so no board to be taken out lest pick.

CAPTAIN REESE DUGAN

THE CHAMPION GIN.

THE CHA

and the change that came over his dirty face will be a lesson to me until me dyin' & Co., next door. said Mr. O'Mahony, as he elevated his eyes to the celling in a pious manner. When the narrator recovered hony, "and there was another thing that you didn't hear of at all. It happened down at Fort Pickering twelve months the fifteenth of last October, exfared worse, however, and being crowded between the stern of the Laura and the guard of the City of Augusta, lying out side and next to a huge wall of ice, was actually impaled, and her stern, crushed as it is, looked more like the bow of a tug boat, barring the share than the coffin at the control of the carring the share the control of the carring the carring the share the control of the carring the carring the share the carring the share the carring the share the carring the once. I never like to delay long about a job of that sort. While I was nailing down the lid, he said: 'You d-d crip-

HERZOG & BRO.

will sell EXTRAORDINARY

DRY GOODS

BARDAINS

this week. JOE LOCKE, news-dealer, 236 Main as well as the latest papers from the prin

MORE SHOKE THAN PLAME.

A dozen or more of late negroes were arrested during the day for stealing from the beats and landing, and lodged in the stationhouse.

THE SALE OF FURS

at reduced prices will be continued this week.

20 sets Mink capes and muffa at $13.50 French Sable sets reduced to $2.60 Children's Fur sets to $1.50; and our entire stock of furs at proportionally low prices.

MENKEN BROTHERS.

CONFECTIONERY.

Mr. August Berton, at the corner of Fourth and Poplar streets, is prepared to fill all orders for New Year's day in his line. As Mr. Berton is now asknowled—work and the leading confectioner of this city, it may be relied on that what white disas. Mr. Berton is now asknowled—work and the leading confectioner of this city, it may be relied on that what white disas. Mr. Berton is now asknowled—work and the leading confectioner of this city, it may be relied on that what white disas. Mr. Berton is now asknowled—as a feeron's.

LAMIES FURS! LABIES' FURS!

We have a few sets of very fine sable and mink left, which we are selling very with the war as selling very was a few sets of very fine sable and mink left, which we are selling very with the sell to capture the mark, and then said that be got the continue of Mr. O'Manony single at the queer week."

We have a few sets of very fine sable and mink left, which we are selling very with the sell from the halcony file and hardened out doors. In a few mink left, which we are selling very with the sell from the market of the sell from the halcony file and the was few sets of very fine sable and mink left, which we are selling very with the sell to easy the file of the sell from the sell of the very sell sell to leave their orders and mink left, which we are selling very with the view of allowing the three-story house had been used for the three stock of the top of the front wall to the three-story house had been used for the three-story house had been used for the three with the view of allowing the three-week windows, and from the market with the view of allowing the three-week w he Raleigh road transaction, and after-they resigned themselves to their fate. ward about nating the man up in the coffin in the shop on Winchester street. It was all done for fun. But this trial to-day," said Mr. O'Mahony, "I don't the most rational theory of the confinwant it to get out on me that I had any gration is that the heat of a flue be

I design to return my thanks to Captain Smith and Sergeant Des, of the police force, for the many kindnesses want it to get out on me that I had any hand in that. I believe the man was drunk, or something like that; he fell was a witness against me, too."

The most goods for the legislation of the windows on either side of the photographer's sky-light opening before the legislation of the windows on the side of the photographer's sky-light opening before the legislation of the leg

PERSONAL.

It is the little ferryboat

APPEAL Newsboy, has removed to 236 Main street, one door above his former "cubby bole," and has there the most attractive and inviting spread of literary good things to be found outside of New York. Joe is, as we have often said, the Brentano of Memphis. He caters for every tano of Memphis. He caters for every shade of opinion, and every degree of intellect. High taste, for every shade of opinion,
and every degree of intellect. High
taste, for every shade of opinion,
and every degree of intellect. High taste, for every degree of intellect. High taste little ferryboat and the 'Squire knew to blame the fall. That the man died from the fall. That the fall the 'Squire knew to blame the fall. That is all the 'Squire knew to blame to the fall. That is all the 'Squire knew to blame to the fall. That is all the 'Squire knew to blame

to the fall. That is all the 'Squire knew to blame to the fall. That is all the 'Squire kn could be done by the boys on the roof, and not until half an hour after the arri-"If I was nt how could I be here," val of the first engine and the falling in adignantly answered the undertaker's of a portion of the roof did the to the flames from the street below. As soon as this was done the little fire went "under" very soon, and the sea of faces that covered Madison street commenced to vanish. The telegraph office next door was in great danger. tween the flames and the dozens of rires that enter the building from the oof. The day was mild and damp. No wind was blowing, hence the compara-tive security felt. The excitement was over in a short time after the water got "squirting" fairly on the combus A WONDERFUL ACCIDENT. In the progress of the smoke a gree estimated at twenty-five bundred to three thousand dollars. Insured for five thousand dollars. Insured for five thousand dollars in the Queen and five deep to R. W. LIGHTBURNE, Agent, and the deep to R. W. LIGHTBURNE, and R. W. LIGHTBURNE the bare life into the woods, without thousand dollars in Peoples' of Memples and saw the candle, and on the other and saw the coffin, the change that came over his dirty will be a lesson to me until medyin' will be a lesson to me until medyin' and the control of the change that came over his dirty will be a lesson to me until medyin' and the control of the contro himself he became lively again, and went rattling on. "That fellow," he gines and men were out in less than no continued, "got a fit of penitential sorrow that night that will last him till his was were of the wildest character. At HERZOG & BRO., 294 Main street.

500 SPLENDID MASQUERADE SUITS.

The finest and best assortment of mas
The finest and best assortment of masthere at all, as you said at the time. It was me." This last particle came from that were kept burning on the levee, Mr. O'Mahony with an air of triumph where the wrecks were lying at the foot such as good men feel when they have an opportunity of vindicating themselves before an impartial tribunal.

THE FORT PICKERING EVENT.

of Poplar street, and along there. It happily turned out that the cause of alarm was the burning of some gas and coal at the gas works. The damage "Yes," continued the voluble O'Ma- amounted to nothing worth speaking of. Some weatherboarding was scorched,

> FURS! FURS! FURS! Sable, mink, marten, seal, ermine, etc., in all the different styles, at very low prices. Wheaton & Co., hatters and furriers, 279 Main street, sign of the

A NUMBER of good second-hand pi-anos, in fine order, for rent or sale, at H. G. HOLLENBERG'S. TO MR. J. M. CANNON.

it being first Thursday in January), open and sold an election at all the voting places in chelly country, framesses, for a Joint Representative in the 28th femeral Assembly of said sale to fill the vacuum occasioned by the regulation of Hom. L. L. Boyd, member elections Shelly and Payette countries. The Sollywing Judges and Cherka are nereby ppointed to hold said election in their repositive discrete and voting places:

Finish District-Old Union Church. Judges-John Blekner, John D. Hines am smes M Adams; Clerks-J W Fraims am smes smith. Deputy Sheriff-Richard Gay Fifth District-Big Spring.

Sixth District-Rinleigh Jindges-Z. Anderson, W. H. Monarief and V. Burrow; Clerks-George W. Lewis and R. H. Owan, Deputy Sheriff-W.T. Frier. Seventh District-Burtlett Eighth District-Wythe Depot.

Elighth District-Log Union, Indges—Robert Gillispie, Robert F Scott and J Whorry: Clarks—John Anderson and J K datthews. Deputy sheriff—D T Starling.

Judges-Robert Folkin, B H Oats and J W trnoid; Clerks-S N Pavis and W H tearrett Sputy Sheriff-S M Ellis. Truth District-Forest Hill.

Tenth District-Collierville Judges-J W Fleming, W C Hill and J Boyes Farley; Clerks-J W Koen and Pas R Hulbert Deputy Sheriff-G W Reed. Eleventh District-Germantown Judges-Geo W. Gregory, J.C. Callis and W. Mitchell; Clerks-Jno M. Hogers and Wm arter, Deputysherid-L & Rhodes.

CARD OF THANKS.

P. F. BILBOW. THE nost goods for the least money. Citizens and strangers, visit the great game depot of Victor D. Fuchs, No. 41 band a "hristmas present, please call on Sternberg, 313 Main street, for a fine Meerschaum pipe or a box of Mayana

-Go to Leddin's Business College. -Attend Robertson's Business College. -Armstrong's Photographic Gallery, No 211 Main street. Three faultless gem

One of Grover & Baker's impro Sawing Machines. Terms of purchase so easy that every one can afford to frie cheapest and best STEAM DYRING AND CLEANING HOUSE in the city is at

246 Second street, Hunt & Hansen's old HANSON & WALKER

STEAMBOATS.

H. C. Yenger City of Quincy,

Point every Tuesday, Thursday at 10 o'clock s.m. Steamer PAT CLEBURNE,

Memphis and New Orleans Packet Co., FOR NEW ORLEANS AND THE BENDS. Str. Belle Lee,

FOR ARKANSAS RIVER

er all points on Arkamus river Tues and Baturdays, at 5 p.m. in 18 Office on Wharf beat, cot of the

By virtue of a writ of election to me directed from His Excellency, John C. Brown covernor of the State of Tennessee, I will, or Phursday, the 2d Day of January, 1873,

First District-At Union Academy. dges -J D Stewart, Thomas Egperson and Brown; Clerks-UG Chamberish and V Ierring. Deputy Shgriff-W W Dickness Second District—Milhood.

Judges—FF Smith, E. C. Pattison and C. R.

trond; Clarks—S. A. Caphitt and S. P. Ligon, eputy Sheriff—G K Strickland.

Third District-Bollon's Store. Judges - F Perton, Geo. R Wynne and T H Magne; Clerks James P. Brown and Richard Soldsby. Deputy Sheriff - W T Goldsby. Judges - W B Waldran, B B Barnes and Wn Jent'y Lake; Clerks - J S Gallaway and J C Sinson. Deputy Speciff - M C Fearce.

Judges J McRenoks, J J Wood and W & Gallaway; Clerks J O Pruden and B J Kimbrough. Deputy Sheriff B S Taylor. niges-M B Atkins, J R Blayde and Ken Garrett; Clerks-H Y Mariey and J A Mer Deputy Sheriff-J W Herring.

Minth Bistrict-Pinherville. Judges—M L Williams, J W Allen and J I trong; Clerks—M A Williams and J II Pat ick. Deputy sheriff—F A Pugh. Ninch District-Debaumcy's Store.

Judges - W E Size, J H Smith and F J Sum ners; Clerks - i. H Porkins and W A Cark Deputy Sheriff - M Scott.

Twelfth District-Onkville, Judges—NF Lemaster, W B Vanhook and M M Robertson; Clerks—Tom Holeman, jr, and E E Elam, Deputy Spend—R H Pearson, The 1th District - At Bundyn's. Judges-CC White, V Rhodes and John Hersher: Clerks-TT Wilson and J H Wellington, Deputy Sheriff-WD Chincon. Thirteenth District - Arnold's.

Judges Samuel Hays John Brown and H Housel; Clerks-J W Perkins and G Walker. Deputy Sheriff-F C Stephenson. Fourteenth and Filteenth Instructs.

Judges Maurice Mitchell, J. A. Hagar and J. Imman; Glerks R. A. Penningtonand Au-rew Taff. Deputy Sherid Ben Overturi, First Word-Main Street, near Engine House Judges J D Nicholds, Thomas Foley and at K Burns; Clerks-James Cronan and E Balley, Deputy Sheriff-James J Murphy, Second Ward-Poplar Street Bugine House, Judges James Steele, J. W. Graves and Ton-fadden; Clerks J. H. Lawrence, and James IcMillan. Deputy Sheriff Peter Townsend Third Worl-Adoms Street, near Second. Judges A D Gibson, T P Adams and Ed leGuire; Clerks—J A J Smith and C C Cor-s. Deputy Sheriff—Isnac Rosser.

Judges KJBI Wynn, Napolson Hill and nones Buchman; Cerks W Gilbert and ames Martin. Deputy Sheriff B W Ed-Fifth Word-County Court Building. Judges-T W Galusha, James H Swar M H Miller; Clerks-T's Braug and J H on, Deputy Sheriff-J F Lanford. Judge-J M Hewitt, S D Welet arhum; Clerks-W S Gregory and ed. Deputy Sheriff-U E Steway

Judges Patrick Twohig, A J White and J Comment: Clerks J L Pourne and J congue. Inputy Sheriff J J DuBose. THE Glycerine Cream is the rage with Eighth Word-Poplar Street Market Hou. all the indies. It is good. Moores & Peter Regspr Clerks-Laz. louses and F A Collins. Deputy Sheriff-S A Moore. Ninth Ward-Near corner Fourth and Auction

Tenth, Word-Mississippi House,

re will niso be elected at the shoot Visitor or Member of to First Want-Enginehouse, Main Street. Second Word-Enginehouse, Popular Street. Paird Ward Second Street, near Jeffrage, Judges M. D. L. Stewart, James G. Barbour and W. R. Pickett, Clerks D. T. Noos and M. A. Allin, Deputy Sheriff T. W. Rice, Fluid Ward-Second Street, near Union, Judges-Thomas F. Hills, George C. Holse-nd J. P. Bromgools; Clerks-E. Rively Box et and Phil. D. Crump. Deputy Shariff-P. M.

Sixth Word-Waldron Block

TWO TENEMENTS-With four rooms each Apply at 21 Avery street. dell's tion direct from OLD SANTA CLAUS.

MONDAY, JANUARY 6, 1873, THE LYDIA THOMPSON TROUPE.

garden, orchards, etc., to ely, on the premises, to ELLIS & CO. OFFICES-Three good offices in the Plant-ers' Insurance Company's Building for L. Apply to the PLANTERS INSURANCE CO., No. 0 Madison street. MR. L. H. SHEWELL, OFFICES-Two large front offices, second-story: also, storage room, by A. PALLER & Co., 28 Front street, between Madison and det a L COME-Buit of rooms, first floor up sinirs, to over our store, nertheast corner Main and Jefferson streets. A long establishes millinery and mantan-maker's stand. Possession given ist September. GEO. SHIELDS & CO., and > WANTS. SITUATION—By a man and wife; the man as gardener, the woman to cook, wash and from; the man will make himself generally useful. Address MAN AND WIFE, 4629.

FOR RENT.

SITUATION—By a first-class gardener; one that understands his business in every department. Address, immediately, e. C., this office.

SiTUATION—A lady wishes a situation a housekeeper in a first-class hotel or private family; unquestionable reference given Address de28 care of Appeal office,

W. E are authorized to announce T. J. SHEL OF TON, Jn. of Lagrange, as a candidate of represent Fayette and Shelby counties in the state Legislature.

M., this office.

CIFUATION—in a sawmill by a No. 1 march of the state Legislature.

M., this office. BUSINESS—A gentleman with a cash capi-tal of $10,000 to $15,000 can buy an interest

DRONT ROOM-Purnished; 536 Main stre

SALE OR EXCHANGE.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

ongine and double-flue boiler, reador, whistle, Judesa governor, ist-sull of four-feet French burn products, commercial advantages and future prospects, published by James E. Waldo, 122 Camp street, New Orleans, Louisiana, is received.

We of the MENKEN BROTHERS.

of smallpox in Mississippi before the post mortem was held. The skull had on ought to have that skull-bone

-The grit of a true fireman was shown yesterday, when Eagan got a belt of a hose mounted with brass over the eye, as he came down the ladder ing on Madison street. He was cut an ich deep, but still held his grip and slid down the ladder to the ground without further bujury. He burried to

There was a nice question before the ecorder yesterday morning, involving the rights of draymen on the one hand and the terror-inspiring functions of the police on the other. An officer of the name of Cogbill undertook to coerce a egro drayman into hauling a load for some one. The dray-driver did not want to do it, and being deviled and that sectimins makes book for an integreat men of Memphis. They go to time to have the exact outline of their that was expected did not come, but the river rose eighteen inches during the may make calfskin boots which will not iy fit perfectly and give comfort in morning there came with the rise wearing, but which will also last

Brown & Co., A. Seessel & Son, K. Fos-er & Co., J. A. Harpham, J. J. An-irews & Son, Johnston & Vance, Hartmus & Co., Anderson & Watson, J. T. Speer, Geo. S. Richardson, A. M. Scar-bough & Co., Wm. Harris, N. Brooks & n South street, Friday afternoon, when asembled their pupils for a Christmas

Drinking polar-waves has gone out of fashion since the mild weather threatens another visit.

The season of young lamb has arrived. A nice roast hand the many of the construction of the

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS,-Great

GENTLEMEN—I hereby return you my sincere thanks for your flattering call than the square stern of the "Koon." She was o firmly fastened in, that men ing papers of the twenty-fourth instant, were occupied nearly all day in sawing to announce myself as a candidate for her loose from the

NEW YEAR'S STYLES

PERSONAL.

Five thousand masks in every style, selves before an impartial tribunal.

Children's Underweut At Greatly Reduced Prices at B. LOWENSTEIN & BROS'.

WAGGENER, 3174 Main street, has the in the city; the largest assortment of goods from from the hands of the im-

Misses' Underwear,

Ladies' Underwear,

ODDS AND ENDS!

ALL WOOL!

(ALL WOOL)

-LAST WEEK OF THE-SOUTHERN PALACE -as a-DRY GOODS EMPORIUM.

We have rearranged our stock, and offer during the present week all the remnants of our stock at remnant prices.

We have still left some of those hand-

Mr. O'Mahony laughed at the queer remark, and then said that he got the matching everything that was theirs with them. There being no stock left that could be reached, and nothing belonging to the renters save the fixtures, their apprehensions were allayed, and the Raleigh road transaction, and after-the restriction of elegant framed chromos—some fine master-pieces of art. The entire lot must be sold regardless of price. Open for exhibition all day Monday.

"He swore nothing," said O'Mahony: The mischief was evidently confined to inquest, and they could find nothing out but that the man died from the fall. That is all the 'Squire knew about it That is all the 'Squire knew and the constant of the constant of the constant of the constant of the constant. It was a constant of the constant of the swear? He held the inquest, and they could find nothing out but that the man died from the fall. That is all the 'Squire knew about it That is all the 'Squire knew and the constant. It was a constant of the constant of the constant. It was a constant of the constant of the constant. It was a constant of the constant. It was a constant of the constant of the constant. It was a constant of the constant of the constant. It was a constant of the constant of the constant. It was a constant of the constant. It was a constant of the constant of the constant. It was a constant of the constant of the constant. It was a constant of the constant of the constant of the constant. It was a constant of the constant of Judges-T D Massey, T D Elltf and A Coark; Clerks-H B Rambey, Jr, and B O Viley, Deputy Shertff-R R Stone. Secreterath District-Walnut (in > Ladus wishing to make their hus-LOCAL PERMS.

A SPIENDID HOLIDAY PRESENT.

Judges-G J Widrig, M J Doyle and B W slly; Clerks-W Z Mitchell and Jacob firms, eputy Sheriff-George L Williams.

The following account of probable for NEW ORLEANS AND THE SENDS OF JANUARY, ME, the same being the first edges—John Geogel, S. Francioll and John Cochran. Churs—F. Marshall and W. J. 1820, Deputy Sherid, Barney Cox.

> udges J. J. Lovin, Michael Maher and M. Hanson; Clerks Job Bledon and S. A. oure, jr. Deputy Sheriff J. J. Jenny. Dighth Word-Popler Street, opposite Marie House. Judges John B. Campbell, John Frick and George Montgomery; Clerks, E. J. Barinds, and P. D. Boyle; Deputy-Sheriff, N. B. Holk,